Many persons find themselves at times in need of a certain amount of cash. The Society for Savings makes such loans for 2 per centand not one cent more. Only 2 per cent because we are not in business to make money, but to help those in need of a loan at the least possible cost to them. We charge 2 per cent to make the institution self-supporting—and the nayment of this 2 per cent assures the borrower that he is not accepting charity.
